

The Study Center Gerzensee, a foundation of the Swiss National Bank, is a center for the training of central bankers and doctoral students. It also hosts international academic conferences. We are currently looking for a

TEACHING / RESEARCH ASSISTANT.

The position involves a light teaching load (mainly central bankers' courses) as well as some research assistance and organizational tasks. Working conditions are similar to those of assistants at Swiss universities.

The candidate should be a graduate student in economics who wants to write a doctoral thesis, preferably in macroeconomics or finance. We expect a commitment to do research and to contribute to the academic environment at the Study Center.

Preference is given to candidates who successfully participate in the Swiss Program for Beginning Doctoral Students in Economics, successfully completed the program or plan to attend the program in the coming year. The starting date for the position is flexible.

For further information about the position, please contact any of the current assistants. Their contact details as well as further information about the Study Center can be found at www.szgerzensee.ch.
